PREZ SEZ:

The cold of the mornings is a good sign that winter has arrived; none the less there has still been plenty of good flying weather. In fact here have been some outstanding midweek days which Iain and I have been able to take advantage of. The sealed strip works very well, there should be no reason not to fly any time of the year weather permitting.

This weekend Saturday the 10th is the planned weekend for the Oratia Air Scouts visit to Mercer. The weather is looking good for this also, if you are able to help with flying or ground marshalling, give me a call. They plan to stay the night so there will be plenty of time to give them all a really nice fly without the fear of sun strike suffered in the past.

There have been no developments with the new hanger; we are in a bit of limbo until we can get access to the land behind the existing hanger. The ground is a bit soft under foot so I must confess to not being too worried about it just now. We will need to give it serious consideration as spring and summer approach.

If you haven't thought much about debentures may be you could do so before the meeting, it will be helpful if we have some examples to base our proposal on.

Chris has fitted brakes to FVG these work very well as tried out yesterday, (7th June) except for the last covers to arrive the plane is now 100%.

At the next meeting we'll go over a bit of Law and regulatory compliance, this will be especially valuable for students but also useful for current pilots as a bit of a refresher.

*See you all next Wednesday.
Anton Lawrence*

ARMAC members (from left Martyn Seay, Chris Todd, Peter Cole and Dave Fandam) during a stop over at Krippner's Field on 20th May. Also flying were Brian Thomson, Andrew Guyan and Russell Jones. The group flew Mercer - Raglan - Krippners - Te Kowhai - Mercer.

Tom Krippner has Avgas at the field and carries out Jabiru servicing.

Thought for the day:

- I) The only time you have too much fuel is when you're on fire.*
- II) Any attempt to stretch fuel is guaranteed to increase headwind.*

Friendship Between Women:

A woman didn't come home one night. The next day she told her husband that she had slept over at a girlfriend's house.

The man called his wife's 10 best friends.

None of them knew anything about it.

Friendship Between Men:

A man didn't come home one night. The next day he told his wife that he had slept over at a buddy's house.

The woman called her husband's 10 best friends.

Eight of them confirmed that he had slept over, and two claimed that he was still there.
